

Initial Application or Extension Instructions for J-2 Work Permission

You must send the following documents to the Department of Homeland Security:

1. Form I-765

Download the I-765 form at: <https://www.uscis.gov/i-765> Individuals applying for J-2 work permission need to complete the I-765. The answer to #27 in the I-765 form is (C)(5).

2. Statement of Request for J-2 Work Permission

Download the template letter that is linked on the the Forms for J-1 Students webpage (look for the table of "Forms for J-2 Dependents"). You must show that the J-1 has enough money to meet both the J-1 and J-2 living expenses. DHS will only grant J-2 work permission for the purpose of "supporting the family's customary recreational and cultural activities and related travel, among other things." [8 CFR 214.2 (j)(v)]

3. $410 Fee to the Department of Homeland Security

You may pay the fee with a money order, personal check, cashier's check, or credit card. If you pay by check, the check must be made payable to "U.S. Department of Homeland Security." To pay by credit card, use Form G-1450, Authorization for Credit Card Transactions.

4. Photocopies of Most Recent DS-2019s of Both the J-1 and J-2

J-2 work permission is valid only if both the Employment Authorization Document (EAD) and the J-1's DS-2019 are current. It is your responsibility to ensure that both documents are valid. If you are asking for an extension of your J-2 work permission, you may need to first extend your DS-2019. Work permission will not be extended past the expiration date of the J-1's DS-2019. However, your work permission does not necessarily expire on the same date as the J-1's DS-2019; your work permission may expire earlier.

5. Print-outs of I-94 information for both the J-1 and J-2

I-94 information can be found on the U.S. Customs and Border Protections website

6. Photocopy of Current EAD Card

Only required if asking for an extension of J-2 work permission.

7. Two Identical Color Photographs of Yourself Taken Within the Last 30 Days

Starting in July 2019, you can get photos that meet the requirements at the UMN Passport Office in the University International Center (331 17th Ave SE).
